

iMmake

Saturday, March 22
10am - 5pm

iMake is an all-ages event and opportunity to make, create, learn, invent, craft, recycle, build, think, play, and be inspired!

Highlights include but are not limited to:

- 3D Printers: Find out how they work.
- Star Wars 501st: Meet the characters from our favorite science fiction film.
- Cardboard Creations: Design, engineer and tinker your very own cardboard creation.
- Paper Circuits: Make electrical circuits on a flat piece of paper.
- Animatronic Puppets: Work with award-winning animatronic puppets that were actually featured at the 2013 New York City Maker-Faire.
- Screen printing: Bring out your inner-artist.
- Spin On! with Motor Mania.
- Take-apart! Challenge your inner-engineer.
- Bling It! Design playful bling.
- Sock Puppet Creations: Create your very own puppet from interesting materials.
- New this year: Make a Robot! Learn how to create playful arduino robots. Enrollment limited, pre-registration strongly suggested; materials fee $10.00
Registration information available March 1.
- Local Makers: Check out the inventive, creative and resourceful Tarrant Makers.

FREE with general exhibit admission.
