Mouser Electronics and NOVACAP Sign Distribution Agreement

Stocked Products Include SMT and Radial Leaded Capacitors

Mansfield, Texas, USA – January 15, 2008 – Mouser Electronics, Inc., known for its rapid introduction of the newest products, today announced it has signed a distribution agreement with NOVACAP to distribute their SMT and radial leaded capacitors. A leading supplier of application-specific multilayer ceramic capacitors and capacitor assemblies, NOVACAP's SMT and radial leaded capacitors are ideal for a variety of markets including aerospace, military, medical, telecommunications, computer, and oil exploration.

"NOVACAP specializes in high temperature, high voltage, pulse power, and many other application-specific ceramic capacitors. The addition of Mouser as our distributor broadens our exposure to the system designers that can benefit from our unique products," said Mark Skoog, President of NOVACAP. "Having these products readily available from Mouser will give our customers the ability to respond to market needs and shorten their time to market."

According to Barry McConnell, Mouser Vice President of Product Marketing, the addition of NOVACAP enhances the selection of the newest capacitor products available to the distributor's design engineering customer base.

"We are pleased to partner with such a strong industry leader," McConnell said, "and quickly deliver NOVACAP's innovative capacitor products to our engineering customers."

Mouser's broad-based product line, unsurpassed customer service, and streamlined warehouse operations make the distributor the design engineer's one-stop shop for all the components and associated development tools necessary for total project design.
