Mouser First To Stock The New Optical Finger Navigation Sensor and Lens From Avago Technologies!

Mansfield, Texas, USA — April 12, 2011 - Mouser Electronics, Inc., regarded as a top global engineering design resource for semiconductors and electronic components, today announced it is stocking new product from Avago Technologies.

Avago Technologies' Optical Finger Navigation (OFN) Sensor and Lens are compact, precise, fast speed, and highly reliable navigation solutions to help enhance overall system performance in mobile phones, music players, portable media players, remote controls, and much more. The Avago OFN Sensor is capable of high-speed motion detection of up to 15 inches per second (ips) and features an on-chip oscillator and integrated LED to minimize external components. With no moving parts, designers can create a highly reliable device with little or no maintenance. Avago Technologies' Optical Finger Navigation (OFN) Sensor does not require precision optical alignment to help with high-volume assembly. The small form factor (SFF) 6mm x 6mm x 1.38mm enables space savings and profile reduction. The Avago OFN Sensor features intelligent power management to extend operating hours and battery life.
