Mouser Employees Step Up to Raise Funds for Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure

April 18, 2012 – Mouser Electronics, Inc., regarded as a top design engineering resource and global distributor for semiconductors and electronic components, today announced that its employees received 2nd place for the second consecutive year in the category of corporate team participation at the recent Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure Event held April 14, 2012. More than 340 Mouser employees donated over $4,500 to the charity, and Mouser's large and enthusiastic racing team included 143-plus participants.

"Our generous employees have embraced this charitable initiative with open arms. We are very honored to be named a top corporate partner for the Race for the Cure, helping to make a difference in the fight against breast cancer," says Paula Holcomb, Mouser Electronics' Vice President of Human Resources.

In 2011, Mouser also received second place for its corporate involvement in the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure thanks to the ongoing dedication of its employees. The growing company, whose global headquarters is based in Mansfield, Texas, regularly promotes a healthy and happy workforce for its 1,000-plus employees with several programs to encourage good health habits, Holcomb says.
