Mouser welcomes 22 New Suppliers in first 18 weeks of 2011

June 2, 2011 – Mouser Electronics, Inc., a top design engineering resource and global distributor for semiconductors and electronic components, today revealed the addition of 22 new suppliers in the first 18 weeks of 2011 for a robust start to the year. Mouser's newest additions include such manufacturers as Maxim Integrated Products, Bias Power, Code Red Technologies and Ixos, to name a few, bringing an additional 86,000 new orderable part numbers to Mouser's huge selection of products that are easily accessible online at mouser.com.

With the addition of each new supplier, Mouser furthers its goal of delivering the most comprehensive lineup of leading technologies across all product categories, from semiconductors and SSL solutions, to low-power and wireless products. Mouser serves electronic design engineers worldwide by stocking the most advanced technologies and providing 17 global customer support centers for personalized assistance. The distributor is uniquely equipped to service customers needing small quantities of semiconductors, development tools and other electronic components.

"Our push to expand our supplier base reinforces our continued focus on bringing the newest and most innovative components to design engineers across the world. We appreciate our supplier partners and are excited to be able to offer even more leading-edge technologies from both top tier and up-and-coming manufacturers," remarked Barry McConnell, Mouser Senior Vice President of Products. "We strive to provide products with the most advanced lifecycles, helping to improve the speed-to-market for today's innovators. 2011 is shaping up to be another groundbreaking year in Mouser's long history."
