1. Purpose

C&K, as design and manufacturing company for micro-miniature tact switches, is constantly looking to improve the manufacturing means and processes in order to continue serving its customers with the highest performance level.

As part of this continuous improvement policy, in order to reduce the supply risk, we are introducing an additional supplier for the blue LED on the K5V series.

2. Overview

The additional supplier shall comply with the same specifications as the existing one and the LED shall pass the test within C&K product.
