

Hi Channel Partners,

I regret to inform everyone that ON Semiconductor has now officially announced EOL notice, Last Time Buy AND a cost increase to our Fujitsu Components Japan side !

So this has now also shifted from request for LTB “estimated buy quantiles” per the thread below.....now to an OFFICIAL EOL notice with LTB

Fujitsu sincerely apologizes in advance for the issues this is causing but it is being caused by ON Semi and we are doing our best to try to manage this unfortunate situation.

OFFICIAL EOL NOTICE:

Effective IMMEDIATELY as of June 1, 2021 the specific orderable PN below are End Of Life (EOL).

Last Time Buy :

ALL LTB PO either OEM DIRECT or Distributor PO to Fujitsu Components America NO later than Thursday, June 10 at 5:00PM Pacific Standard Time.

Last Time Buy Schedules:

ALL Last Time Buy Purchase Orders will be scheduled to ship ASAP per the then Fujitsu Components America ESTIMATED TARGET leadtime EX Fujitsu San Jose CA AND based on the component piece part availability from the ON Semiconductor.

Last Time Buy Status:

Effective IMMEDIATELY as of June 1, 2021 ALL Purchase Orders are Non-Cancellable and Non-Returnable (NCNR) under ALL conditions.

COST INCREASES:

I will be sending out something ASAP regarding NEW Distributor Costs for each PN below.

The current Fujitsu Components Authorized Distributor Price List COSTS for the specific PN listed below are NO longer valid and will be replaced by the NEW COST TBD.

Fujitsu as of June 1, 2021 will NOT be accepting ANY NEW PO for the specific PN list below...until AFTER we issue the NEW Price List with the adjusted Disty Book Costs.
