Before Change

Before Change

- Molex Nogales Mexico is currently producing series :- 41815
- These 190 part numbers are part of KK Series Part numbers transferred from Molex Nogales(3105) to Molex India(8203).
- Found DU/MLQ difference between packaging standard vs SAP.

After Change

After Change

- This production location change is to facilitate better production footprint within our organization. Suitable tooling's / machine would be moved to Bangalore India and products would be stocked during this move at Molex Nogales. Expectations are for these transfers to be fully complete by March 1, 2019.
- Molex Nogales and Molex India both plants produces KK series of assembly parts. We observed that the packaging DU & MLQs are different between the two plants for KK series.
- There would be no impact on the product fit, form & function as it is not a product change.
- PPAP will be submitted based on customer specific request.
- The 190 part numbers impacted. The part list attached in the excel file.
- The KK series part numbers affected "see attached impacted parts list" attached.
- Qualification Reports and samples available upon request after the date shown above
