Crimp Terminal

After Change

Molex production transfer announcement

- This PCN is initiated in continuation to the recently issued PCN 508737 for transfer of Rast products from Zetronics to Molex India (8204). We have created this new additional PCN for the missed Rast 94518 series parts to communicate customers on transfer from Zetronics to India. As Molex previously announced all RAST products manufactured in Shannon Ireland would be transferred by the end of 2020 to Molex India (8204) located in Bangalore. Further to that announcement, Molex will also be consolidating RAST products manufactured in Molex Zetronics located in Padova, Italy to Molex India (8204), Bangalore by the end of 2020. Molex will build buffer stock as needed to ensure uninterrupted supply to our customers during the transfer. Molex may also develop new suppliers or procure materials from a new location of an exiting supplier. For easy identification of source plant, product manufacturing location will be identified on the product identification label
- Product Impact - none
  - There will be no form, fit or functional changes as a result of the transfer
- Part Number Impact - 945180100, 945180101
- Qualification Reports and samples available December 1, 2020 upon request
