Description

Adafruit GPIO Reference Card for Raspberry Pi B+/Pi 2/Pi 3 provides easy wire connections to the Raspberry Pi GPIO with no soldering required. This reference board can be used to see if you're connecting wires correctly. The pins are grouped into categories like I²C, IO, UART, SPI, and power. The GPIO Reference card is only 0.8mm thick and slides right onto the 2x20 GPIO header. Jumper wires plug right in with female sockets on top. The GPIO Reference Card is incompatible with the Raspberry Pi Model B.
