Mouser Electronics Named Silver Sponsor of 2019 Microchip India MASTERs Conference

December 3, 2019 – Mouser Electronics, Inc., the authorized global distributor with the newest semiconductors and electronic components, announces that it will support the 16th annual Microchip India MASTERs Conference as a Silver Sponsor. The conference will take place from December 3 – 6, 2019, at the Sheraton Grand Bangalore Hotel, offering a diverse set of classes, hands-on training and networking opportunities with experts.

This year's Microchip India MASTERs Conference features over 50 classes, which offer information on the latest products from Microchip Technology, including designing with Ethernet switches, fundamentals of USB Type-C and Power Delivery, and FreeRTOS application development using the MPLAB[®] Harmony v3 framework as well as Microchip PolarFire™ FPGAs.

“Mouser is excited to sponsor this event,” says Daphne Tien, Mouser's Vice President of Marketing & Business Development, APAC. “Answering the technical needs of design engineers is always top of mind at Mouser. We are constantly looking for ways to help engineers and buyers save time and get to market faster, whether it's selecting, purchasing or designing.”

Visitors to the Mouser booth can discover the widest selection of the newest Microchip products to support and speed the design process. Attendees can also learn about Mouser's tools and services like the free ECAD service and Applications and Technologies sites, which provide exclusive information on cutting-edge products, design resources, white papers and videos. Mouser also offers the Bench Talk blog, technical eBooks, and other informative resources for design engineers and buyers.
